Campbell vs. SC Westside
@Los Altos Purissima Park

Winning / Visiting Team: Campbell - 5 runs
Losing / Home Team: SC Westside - 1 run

Winning Pitcher for Campbell: Liam Kropp
Losing Pitcher for Westside: Mason Pound

Campbell jumped out to an early lead with a 4 hit, 2 run top of the first and never looked back, executing the game in workman like fashion. Westside added its lone run in the bottom of the second. Campbell matched it in the top of the 3rd, and at the half way point it was 3-1. The stingy defense continued, with no scoring in the 4th. The game seemed to break open in the 5th, with Campbell's Christian Pieciado (yes I got some help pronouncing that one last night at the game!) smashing a ground rule double that bounced over the fence, and collecting 2 RBIs to make the score 5-1. SC Westside threatened late as they always seem to be able to do, loading the bases. But it was not to be, and Campbell got out of the inning without giving up any runs. Both sides - players, families, and coaches - were very positive in their approach and player support, setting a great example of what little league baseball should be all about. Congratulations to Campbell.

S.C. Briarwood vs. S.C. Westside
Hosted at Raynor Park, home of Sunnyvale Metro Little League

Final score: S.C. Briarwood 4, S.C. Westside 2

The game was tight throughout with great pitching and fielding from both sides. Ultimately, Briarwood's bats provided the difference when in the 5th inning, Jared Cabildo and Noah Pang hit back to back home runs to spot Briarwood a 4-0 lead. Westside would mount a rally in the bottom half by loading the bases with no outs. But Briarwood stayed calm and got out of the inning allowing just two runs, one of which was earned. Jared Cabildo was the winning pitcher throwing 5.2 innings and giving up only one hit in 85 pitches. He walked four. Jacob Horne recorded a one pitch save. The Briarwood defense played a good game behind their pitchers as they only recorded one strikeout. Meanwhile, Westside pitchers, Sam Sylvia and Ty Yoshida, combined to strike out 11 giving up four hits and seven walks. All four Briarwood runs were earned.
