Game

Highlights: It was a wild one today between Campbell 10U All Stars and Cupertino 10U All Stars. Both teams combined for a total of 28 runs on 25 hits. Cupertino came out on fire, scoring six runs in the 1st inning and three more in the 2nd inning. Campbell returned with some firepower of their own, notching 11 runs in the first three innings. Cupertino responded with four more runs in the top of the 4th inning, lead by an RBI double by Michael S. and a three-run triple by Dominic M. Campbell took some of Cupertino's best shots but refused to stay down and took the lead for good in the bottom of the 5th inning by scoring three runs. Dasha S. contributed with an RBI double and Roman S. later added two more RBI's by hitting a pop fly to right field. Tyler H. closed out the game for Campbell on the mound and got credit for the save as well. It was an entertaining, back and forth game between both teams and best of luck to all of the players as they continue their quest to reach the District 44 Championship Game.
